

To Arms!

My countrymen, your glorious old State is again invaded by Jeff. Davis' God-defying serfs. The cause of God, the glory of the nation, and the honor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, all call aloud for action. Come forth from the hills and valleys, and in the name of all you hold dear, for time and for eternity. Do not delay your coming. Let no sleep come to your eyes, or rest to your limbs, until you rise in your might in defense of your wives, your children, your homes. A moment's delay may cause a lifetime of bitter regrets, with chains and slavery. If there are any wish to survive the destruction of this nation, the disgrace of the glorious old flag, and the humiliation of the world-renowned Commonwealth of Kentucky, bring disgrace upon himself and posterity, let him turn and flee. Now is the time to show yourselves worthy descendants of noble, free, and independent sires. All are now needed, and honor will be showered upon those who respond in the time of danger. I am authorized to raise the Thirty-eight Kentucky regiment of infantry, for three years' service. The time is none too long, if the enemies of our country are not sooner put down, and our services will terminate with the war. Any man who can raise thirty men cautions in a Second Lieutenant's commission. Let those who will come to the rescue, call at my Headquarters, on the north side of Market, between Second and Third Streets. I have established a camp at the Fair Grounds, in honor of our noble and patriotic Dr. Robinson, whose eloquent appeal now calls upon you to rise in defense of your homes and your friends, and never disgrace the memory of your ancestors. The usual advance pay and bounty will be paid.

Mr. H. Singer, a man of military education and long experience in the United field, will go as Lieutenant-Colonel.
